March 22st saw the Start of the "2018 Global Fintech Investment (Shenzhen China) Summit" in Nanshan District, Shenzhen. The Summit was hosted by the Guangdong Province Department of Commerce and the MOITI (Massachusetts Office of International Trade and Investment), and organized by the Shenzhen Internet Finance Association, China Resources (Shenzhen) Limited, the Nanshan District Financial Services Office and the InTeahouse Boston Technology Venture Center with support from the Nanshan District People's Government.

Present at the Summit, among other distinguished Guests, were Chen Yuehua, Deputy Director general of the Guangdong Province Department of Commerce, Liu Daping, Deputy Director of the Shenzhen Municipal Government Financial Services Office, Xiao Hui, deputy Head of Nanshan District, and Sheng Bin, Former Deputy Secretary General of the Shenzhen Municipal People's Government (and Advisor to Shenzhen Internet Finance Association). Wang Qiang, Secretary of the Nanshan District Party Committee, and Zeng Pai, the Head of Shenzhen's Nanshan District, met with the Guests and congratulated them on the Success of the Summit.

The Summit was also attended by the Nobel laureate for Economics Mr. Eric Maskin, as well as Deans from the World's Top Colleges, such as the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Stanford University and the International School of Brandeis, along with the Director of the Fentech Laboratory, and Representatives from World-Renowned Enterprises such as Google and Morgan Stanley. In all, there were more than 30 International Finance Experts, Academics and High-Tech Representatives, all gathered to discuss the Future of Financial Technology.

Xiao Hui, the Deputy Head of Nanshan District, addressed the Summit. He said that Nanshan is located at the Golden Estuary of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, and thus uniquely positioned to develop Financial Technology. In the Future, Nanshan District will play an important part in the Global Fintech Revolution, and seize the Opportunity of Wider-Ranging Financial Freedom to create a First-Class Business Environment. This Financial Technology Center will help to grow Shenzhen into an International Center for Financial Innovation, and Guangdong Province into a Strong Financial Region.

During the Summit, the Attendees discussed the World's most advanced Financial Technology, and tried to devise ways that Fintech can better serve Human Development, while promoting Technical and Academic Exchanges in the Global Financial Field. This would help speed up the Cultivation of Emerging Financial Industries, and promote the Transformation and Upgrading of the Financial and Banking Industries, thus enhancing the Core Competitiveness of the City of Shenzhen so that it can gradually develop into a World-Class Financial Center.
