"I congratulate Valerie Pécresse's Ile de France Region charter. We are ready to preserve certain populations according to peak hours. We respond to this request with certificate of work or to accompany children or work to borrow certain peak hours. We also limit by moving back the metro stations, and closing stations depending on too much traffic." Explained the Minister of Transport Elisabeth Borne. "We will also act on car traffic jams to also avoid a solution and therefore carpooling is encouraged. Inter-regional travel is limited. Regional trains, and Intercite will go from 7% of attendance to 20% in June and 40% usually in late May. To promote health barriers, and the wearing of masks is compulsory in public transport, and for the most children over 11 years old, in stations and some local authorities can offer masks if they were not able to have them. Access to TGV trains, without reservation or without masks, etc., will be fined. Buses and subways will be disinfected daily. We will adapt for everyone's responsibility." Minister of Economy Elisabeth Borne, Concluded.
