Eric Zemmour, is launching his kick off, after a long suspense he held, for more than six months, as he was actually, having a French tour to sign his last book « France has not said its last word ».

Eric Zemmour took advantage of his First and important presidential campaign meeting, since he officially became a candidate for the Presidency in April 2022, thus announced the creation of his party, called "Reconquest", and mentioned certain axes of his campaign including the "great gathering", which risks destroying the identity of France. He follows then, the fight against illegal immigration in France with its motto "" zero immigration ", and the encouragement of assimilation" for the French of foreign origin, by extending a hand to the Muslims that he invites us to "assimilate for the love of France" which he opposes to those binational, who 'they don't like France should leave it. He is thus inspired by his representative living example, of which he is himself the fruit of the assimilation terminated towards professional success, because he is the son of an immigrant, of Berber Jewish origin arrived from Algeria, and proletarian, having himself grew up in working-class neighborhoods, and studied and assimilated, to the point of becoming a lover of France.-----

"My adversaries want my political death, the journalists want my social death and the jihadists want my death at all." Eric Zemmour declared as he pointed out, those who attack and / or criticize him. He believes that the French media do not treat him equally, versus the other presidential candidates and stressed his anger over some journalists, targeting him, and especially certain left-wing media who boycott him (on the public media), or "insult" him as well as some "politicians", the "left", the "right", the "judges". "Our meetings disturb the journalists", in particular, accused the candidate, Eric Zemmour who denounced the "hatred" that the media would nourish against him. In assimilation, he explained that he had kept his Judaic first name at home and used a "French" first name, that's his own first name « Eric », to better integrate into French society and so that's what he calls the assimilation, leave the religion at home in private life and live French in public. This is how Eric Zemmour, clears taboos and misunderstandings about his political struggle and therefore the origin of his strong nostalgia for the French Republic school of a long time ago and wishes to restore "The culture of merit and the effort "at school. And on the international side it maintains its starting position which is constant with regard to foreign powers" the exit of France from the military command of NATO. "to better protect the sovereignty of the France because he does not want France to be the "vassal of the USA"

Eric Zemmour, made a speech, outlining his first measures "if he is the president of the republic, lasting 1h 30, after six speakers (with a perfect parity between men and women). Eric Zemmour, after having responded to those who reproach him for being misogynist, that his "mother taught him everything and the love of France", to be racist that he is "himself, son of an immigrant, Jewish Berber, from Algeria, who has succeeded in being assimilated "close to the elites, whom he is the son of" proletarians "from the popular class. he proposes to submit to the French people a referendum on Zero immigration, by driving illegal immigrants and binational criminals from France, to the second country, outside of France, from the summer of 2022, if he is elected shutter of the Republic. He also proposes to remove inheritance taxes, for inheritance and lower taxes for companies and allow gross wages to be net wages (as in Anglo-Saxon countries). Finally, he "reaches out to French Muslims, who want to defend France and its values? and encourages French people of foreign origin to be assimilated to the culture and values ??of France "to assert their patriotism, which will ensure their welcome debt, because Eric Zemmour repeats that he does not distinguish between social, ethnic or other origins , but "the French on one side and Foreigners on the other", by confirming its wish to grant national preference to French citizens. Finally he wishes to restore excellence in Education, "the culture of merit and effort," science and public services "as well as" meritocracy "and especially reindustrialisation to restore France to its rank as a great nation as it was in the past because" France is the most beautiful country in the world "... /

ABOUT BEING FRENCH « I PROPOSE THE ASSIMILATION WHICH IS THE BEST GIFT FRANCE HAS GIVEN ME "ERIC ZEMMOUR CONFESSES.-----

Eric Zemmour then raises up one of his favorite subjects: What is it to be French? reaches out to French Muslims who want to join us and some have already joined us. "By dispelling the misunderstanding that he is accused of being" anti-Muslim and / or racist. He adds, drawing inspiration from his own personal journey "For all those who have come like me from elsewhere, I offer them assimilation" He repeats "Assimilation is the best gift that France has given me. offered from Chateaubriand to Voltaire, Balzac "by quoting the great French writers of the Enlightenment, whom he admires while evoking his origin as the son of immigrant Berber Jews who came frankly from Algeria in the 60's, he sends a peaceful message-----

"It was the time of my parents and this will allow us to find peace and brotherhood, Interrogative Eric Zemmour calls out to children and grown-ups who came from elsewhere like him in France, by skillfully sliding from immigration to a positive concept, on condition of assimilating and at the same time for religion, place France above all specificities of identity and / or religion "Why the Poles, Italians, Spaniards have consented, why not Algerians? Why not do it when it comes to the religious level like the Christians and Jews before, why the Muslims could not if you want to defend France, or you are our compatriots, we are setting the bar very high! And he continues on a more radical note "And for those who refuse and bi-nationals who do not feel French, and do not respect our laws, the door is wide open" He continues by calling for the participation of everyone "This fight I cannot do it alone and each of us can participate in this battle and I appeal to your patriotism "

Eric Zemmour ends with a violent diatribe against President Macron, without sparing him by disdaining his person and concludes his speech extremely under applauses and songs, chants, "Zemmour president" by a more positive and more than patriotic promise, of a Return of the France : "Before the face of the whole world we can proudly say that FRANCE IS BACK, this magnificent, beautiful, scientific country which has transformed the World and withers writers who gave hope and beauty... France between freedom, equality and genius was the light and enlightened. Yes France is back because facing all those who want to destroy the French people, FRANCE IS BACK! ...

Eric Zemmour left very quickly, as soon as he pronounced his last words, via his many bodyguards to the backstage where he gave no interview following the injury to his wrist which required to be examined by a doctor on the spot, while the crowd dispersed towards the exit. There were few youngsters, members of the "JeunesdeZemmour", and "GenerationZ" Associations, who ensured the interviews in front of the many television cameras, and those who tidied the stands almost empty, as they successfully, widely sold the gadgets (Stickers, caps, posters, etc ...) the effigy of "Eric Zemmour President 2022" and his fetish expressions like « »"IMPOSSIBLE IS NOT FRENCH » and" BEN VOYONS "...

ERIC ZEMMOUR TAKES HIS OATH OF VILLEPINTE 5 DECEMBRE IN LINE WITH THE LEGACY RIGHT OF DE GAULLE TO REUNITE THE MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH RIGHT-----

Eric Zemmour, appeals to "Those who are tired and those of the militants of LR (The Republicans) to join us, these are the well-off categories which are threatened to be replaced I extend my hand to them and sympathizers and those presented by my friend Eric Ciotti (CIOTTI, scanded), I mean the members of the RPR "(Rally for the Republic, form Republicans). He evokes with nostalgia the past and his political experience in the French Right, whose characters have followed one another and some have not kept their promises:-----

"33 years ago in the States General on immigration, I was there, there was Giscard, Chirac, Sarkozy, Juppe and admit that national solidarity will be tightened to French and that they were already promising zero immigration . 31 years later we find ourselves in Villepinte to say the same thing, and the Macronists and even some of LR, I want to ask a simple question: Were Jacques Chirac, Giscard, Juppe, Bayrou considered of extreme right in wanting immigration reduced to zero? NO! " Insinuating thus that Eric Zemmour is insulting very racist for having wanted and allowed to reduce immigration to zero like his predecessors of the French right ... not considered as racial at the time

He then recalls, by transition, the coincidence of date with his meeting in Villepinte, coincidence of timing or desired strategic calculation, of December 5, 2021 "Today is the anniversary of the creation of the RPR in 1975, December 5 , what symbols! In 1995, Chirac entered Elysee, three years later, and all his beautiful promises were forgotten, the right as usual submitting to the media judges and betraying its voters! He then alludes to his opponent Valerie Pécresse official candidate of LR The Republicans "Pécresse constantly reminds us that her center of political interest is intimately linked to that of Chirac she will act as her mentor, she will allow everything and will do nothing, and Chirac said "I will astonish you by my demagoguery and the promises only engage those who listen to them yes Pécresse is the good heiress of Chirac!" Il termine par annoncer que aujourhui a Villpiente le 5 Decembre, lui, fait le « Serment de Villepinte » yen promise qui sera tenue...adding "We must bring together and unify and return the right to vote to the voters of RN and LR."

We are not going to fight people, we are fighting ideologies, we are not interested in Macron's person because he is fundamentally uninteresting! "He explains vis a vis his great adversary, President Emmanuel Macron, who is at the top of current polls (between 23 and 27% of the vote polls of opinion)
