Apple Sells Three Million iPads in Three Days

iPad Double Previous First Weekend Sales

CUPERTINO, California, 12.11.2012, 08:06 Time

USPA NEWS - November 5, 2012 "Apple® today announced it has sold three million iPads in just three days since the launch of its new iPad® mini and fourth generation iPad" double the previous first weekend milestone of 1.5 million Wi-Fi only models sold for the third generation iPad in March.

The Wi-Fi + Cellular versions of both iPad mini and fourth generation iPad will ship in a few weeks in the US and in many more countries later this year.

"Customers around the world love the new iPad mini and fourth generation iPad," said Tim Cook, Apple's CEO. "We set a new launch weekend record and practically sold out of iPad minis. We're working hard to build more quickly to meet the incredible demand."

The new iPad mini features a stunning 7.9-inch Multi-Touch, 4 display, FaceTime® HD and iSight® cameras, ultrafast wireless performance* and an incredible 10 hours of battery life. The new fourth generation iPad features a gorgeous 9.7-inch Retina, 4 display, new Apple-designed A6X chip, and FaceTime HD camera.

Both iPad mini and the new fourth generation iPad with Retina display are available in 34 countries including the US, Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Japan, South Korea and the UK, and will be available in many more countries later this year, including mainland China. Demand for iPad mini exceeded the initial supply and while many of the pre-orders have been shipped to customers, some are scheduled to be shipped later this month.
