Oleksandr Turchynov visited Poland

Warsaw, 08.03.2015, 20:52 Time

USPA NEWS - Ukrainian Secretary of the National Security and Defence Council of Ukraine Oleksandr Turchynov visited Polish President Bronislaw Komorowski in Warsaw to talk about future relations between Poland and Ukraine. The main topic of this visit was Ukrainian Conflict in the eastern part of the country.

President Bronislaw Komorowski on Thursday received Secretary of the National Security Council and Defense of Ukraine Oleksandr Turchynov to discuss the situation in east Ukraine and Polish-Ukrainian military cooperation.

The head of Poland's National Security Bureau, General Stanislaw Koziej, told Polish Press Agency after the meeting that Komorowski and Turchynov also covered possible developments of the situation in east Ukraine in the context of the February Minsk agreements on a cease-fire between Ukrainian government forces and Ukrainian pro-Russian separatists.

"The two spoke of chances as well as of risks for which Ukraine as well as the international community has to be prepared for," said us Koziej.

During the meeting President Komorowski stressed the importance of the Polish-Lithuanian-Ukrainian brigade as a good instrument for transforming Ukraine's armed forces and its adjustment to NATO standards. The president also confirmed Poland's readiness to train Ukrainian non-commissioned officers and specialists. "The sides also spoke of technical and military stressing the need to move on from public debate to talks among experts," Koziej said us.
