After the discovery of 71 bodies of migrants in a truck in Austria, four people were arrested by the Austrian police authorities and the victim's identity becomes clearer. One of the four is a Bulgarian of Lebanese origin, who would be the owner of the vehicle. Two others, a Bulgarian and a Hungarian man carrying documents, are "almost certainly the drivers" of the truck, and the fourth is an Afghan, said the spokesman.-----There would be "59 men, 8 women and 4 children" among the 71 victims discovered in a refrigerated lorry in Austria told the spokesman of the Austrian police. Of the four children was a little girl aged barely one or two years and three boys aged 8, 9 or 10 years.

THE CONTEXT : A NEW DRAMA OF MIGRANTS ABANDONED TO DEATH

The truck of 7.5 tonnes registered in Hungary bore the logo of a Slovak poultry company.

The causes of death not yet determined. On Thursday, an employee of the motorway company noticed that water flowed abnormally of vehicle, parked on an area of the A4 highway, near the village of Parndorf. Alerted, the local police intervened. In fact water, it was the liquid related to the decomposition of the corpses. A putrid smell was coming from the truck. The cause of death could not be established for the hour. It evokes the thesis of asphyxiation. The migrants were apparently dead for some time. It is a new drama that continues to fuel discussions about the reception of refugees in Europe. This is the first time such a tragedy takes place on European soil and not off the Italian coast.
