TODAY'S AGENDA OF INTERIOR MINISTER SCHEDULED A FORUM FOR DIALOGUE BETWEEN MUSLIM AND FRENCH GOVERNMENT

-----Further the the first meeting of a kind, held on 15 June 2015, the forum for dialogue between Muslim and French governments was again held today on March 21, 2016. It is a coincidence of agenda, in these sad and tragic circumstances in Brussels, and just after 4 days, of the arrest of Salah Abdelslam. This meeting is a continuation of local consultations organized by the prefectures, which allowed to hear thousands of Muslim French. If the first edition of the round tables on various subjects chosen by the participants were organized this second instance was centered on the phenomenon of radicalization. In his closing speech, the Interior Minister Bernard Cazeneuve welcomed the "commitment will that truly animates the Muslims of France" and assured them of the support of the Republic.-----
