1 Malaysia Penang International Charity Drive

1 Malaysia Penang International Charity

Georgetown, Penang, 22.04.2013, 16:08 Time

USPA NEWS - Thousands have gathered at the Han Chiang High School field for the 1Malaysia Penang International Charity Drive. The organisers, estimating the the crowd to be around 80,000, have opened the gates and allowed people to enter the grounds for free. They said over 79,500 tickets have been sold.

Many came in blue bearing the charity drive's logo, bringing along mats and foldable chairs to sit down on the field. Among the big acts slated for the night are international stars Busta Rhymes, Ludacris, and Redfoo of LMFAO. Local artistes Ning Baizura and Suchitra kicked off the night before Leon Lai performed two songs. Other Asian superstars to make their appearance are Eric Moo, Gigi Leung, Grasshopper, Leon Lai, Alan Tam, Hacken Lee, George Lam and Angela Chang. American dancer and rapper Redfoo will be performing his chart topping tunes "Sexy and I Know It", "Sorry for Party Rocking" and "Party Rock Anthem" which has won several awards before leaving the stage to Ludacris to wrap up the night.

Low, or fondly known as Jho Low, said he is helping the event in his capacity as a Penangite and a Malaysian who supports unity, harmony, peace and prosperity. The event is expected to be the next big thing in Penang since South Korean popstar Psy came to Penang during the Penang Barisan Nasional Chinese New Year Open House in February this year. The local and Asian artistes have agreed to perform on a reduced fee basis. He also said that there will not be any political speeches, ceramah or dialogues that night. Low, who was also present, said he hoped the event would help promote Penang and encourage youth to be involved in charity.
