Ghana Can Always Count On India's Hand Of Friendship And Co-Operation

President of India

Accra, Ghana, 13.06.2016, 19:23 Time

USPA NEWS - President, Mr. Pranab Mukherjee during his Ceremonial Welcome at Kotoka International Airport, in Ghana (Accra) on June 12, 2016.

“Indian Companies Would Be Happy To Invest In Ghana If The Right Opportunities Are Given To Them”

His Excellency Mr. John Dramani Mahama, the President of the Republic Ghana hosted a Banquet in honour of the President of India, Mr. Pranab Mukherjee in Accra on June 12.

In his banquet speech, the President Mukherjee said the India-Ghana brotherhood is anchored in our similar experiences, nurtured by the shared aspirations of our peoples and guided by the vision of our Founding Fathers. India will continue to extend the hand of co-operation to Ghana as it marches towards prosperity. Ghana can always count on India's hand of friendship and co-operation. India will be happy to offer assistance and support in all areas where it is required by Ghana.

The President said bilateral relations of India and Ghana have expanded and deepened over the years. Both investments and trade have seen rapid growth. The Government of India and the Indian corporate world recognize the rich potential of the Ghanaian economy. Indian companies would be happy to invest in Ghana if the right opportunities are given to them. We look forward to working with you to realize the full potential of our synergies to our mutual benefit.
