French Minister of Foreign Affairs condemns the bombing in Aleppo

Hospital M10 hit by bombs

Paris, Washington DC, 02.10.2016, 13:21 Time

USPA NEWS - "I condemn in the strongest terms the bombing that struck this morning the M10 hospital, one of the main hospitals of Aleppo. French Foreign Minister for Affairs, Jean Marc Ayrault said. Ban Ki-moon, UN General Secretary denounced this bombing as a war crime.

STATEMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTER JEAN MARC AYRAULT ABOUT M10 HOSPITAL BOMBING-----"I condemn in the strongest terms the bombing that struck this morning the M10 hospital, one of the main hospitals of Aleppo. French Foreign Minister for Affairs, Jean Marc Ayrault said. In the flood of violence that overwhelms Aleppo for several days, the systematic targeting of structures and health workers is particularly unjustifiable. As recalled by the Secretary General of the UN, these attacks constitute war crimes. The perpetrators will be held accountable. This new attack only confirms the absolute urgency of a cessation of hostilities in Aleppo and access of civilian populations to humanitarian assistance they desperately need. In this very moment, the Security Council, France is mobilizing to put a stop to this unacceptable drama. Source French Ministry of Foreign Affairs He also added in a statement " "Their perpetrators will be held to account," foreign minister Jean-Marc Ayrault said in a statement. "France is mobilising at the Security Council as we speak to put a stop to this unacceptable tragedy," Source French Diplomacy
