The President of the Republic, President Putin and Chancellor Merkel held talks today.

They worked together to create the conditions for a summit in Normandie format that could be organized very soon in Berlin. They agreed on the need that such a meeting would be constructive and useful in the context of a resolution of the crisis in eastern Ukraine.

The main parameters are known. On the field, they go through a sustainable cease-fire, accelerated disengagement operations and unhindered access to the observation mission of the OSCE to the border. Politically, they require that the local elections are held in the framework and respect the law of Ukraine and the OSCE standards. The President Francois Hollande and the Chancellor Angela Merkel, also will meet tomorrow with the Ukrainian President Poroshenko. Source Elysee
